TUCKER TRIAL AT ANDERSON.

Manslaughter with Recommendation to Mercy—Sentence Wednesday.

(Daily Mail, Sept. 9th.)

Declaring that there were many points of the case that he must thoroughly consider before pronouncing sentence on Press Tucker, yesterday convicted of manslaughter and recommended to the mercy of the court, in connection with the killing on May 27th, 1922, of Justin Woolbright, at Townville, Judge Meidel Smith, in Sessions Court, this morning said that the passing of sentence would be deferred until Wednesday morning of next week.

Attorneys for Tucker immediately asked that Judge Smith order bail for the defendant until sentence had been passed. Solicitor Harris stated that to his knowledge it had not been customary to release a prisoner convicted before sentence was passed, or notice of intention to appeal for a new trial had been served. However, he stated, the State did not wish to work a hardship upon the defendant.

Judge Smith later signed an order granting bail in the sum of $2,000 for the defendant's appearance in court at 9.30 o'clock on Wednesday morning, Sept. 13th.

The trial of Tucker under an indictment in connection with the murder, on May 27th last, of Justin Woolbright, was begun yesterday morning and consumed practically all day and a portion of last night, Judge Smith having announced that the case would be completed that night. The case has been hard fought throughout, the defendant being represented by the firm of Bonham & Allen and Dickson & Miller, of this city, while the prosecution was conducted by Solicitor Harris, assisted by Leon L. Rice, of the local bar, and Marcus Long, of Walhalla.

Some seven witnesses had been heard before the afternoon session yesterday. The defendant set up a plea of self-defense.

Farmer Hurt by Blow on Head.

Laurens, Sept. 9.—W. W. Smith, a farmer who resides near this city, was taken to a Spartanburg hospital to-night for surgical attention for a very serious wound in the head, said to have been inflicted by a blow with a piece of heavy scuffling in the hands of Pierce Curry, a well-known stock dealer here. The two men, it is alleged had a difficulty at the stables of Curry, when, it is alleged, Curry struck Smith down with the timber. Smith's condition was regarded as critical by local physicians who attended him, and they advised his immediate removal to a hospital.

Cowpens Remains in Spartanburg.

Spartanburg, Sept. 6.—People of Cowpens and vicinity yesterday voted, 219 to 151, to remain in Spartanburg county. Advocates of the annexation to Cherokee county failed to get even a majority, and they

BOUNTY LAND-RICHLAND NEWS.

Davis Sanders Wins Scholarship in Competitive Examination.

Bounty Land, Sept. 11.—Special: Everybody who can seems to be attending the Gipsy Smith meeting, the number increasing daily and great interest being manifest.

Mrs. Dehlla Bruce returned Friday from Greenville, where she had been visiting relatives for several weeks. Mrs. Mason Burdine and Mrs. Gladstone Howard, of Greenville, accompanied her back and will spend several days as guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Stone.

Davis Sanders is to be congratulated upon winning the scholarship to Furman University in the competitive examination recently held. Davis is one of Bounty Land's most promising young men, and his friends rejoice that he has won this distinction. He will leave Wednesday for Greenville for matriculation in Furman.

Our school here closed a successful six-weeks' term last Friday afternoon. The term was shortened on account of crop gathering.

The improvement association held its regular monthly meeting after the close of school Friday and the matter of selecting and purchasing seats for the school was placed in the hands of Misses Ballenger and McMahon, the teachers of the school.

Miss Cornelia Foster delightfully entertained the junior missionary society of Rock Springs at her home last Friday afternoon. The mothers of the members were also invited and an elegant picnic lunch was enjoyed. Miss Frances Blackwell is attending the Seneca High School and will be an inmate of the home of Mrs. H. P. Holleman during the school term.

Mr. and Mrs. Von Thompson and Miss Julia Davis, who have been spending several weeks in the mountains of North Carolina and in Eastley, returned the latter part of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson to their home in Atlanta, and Miss Davis is welcomed home by her friends in the community.

David Stribling re-entered Clemson College at its opening session last week. David is in his sophomore year, and his many friends wish him all success in his college work.

Miss Vera Coe left Sunday for Red Springs, where she will enter as a senior the Flora McDonald College. Miss Coe will stop over in Charlotte en route to Red Springs.

Miss Ida Beth Doyle leaves Friday for Rock Hill to enter the freshman class of Winthrop College.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bottoms is still in a precarious condition, although slightly improved.

E. L. Stone, of Laurens, spent the week-end here with his family.

needed a two-thirds of the total vote in order to win. The election passed off quietly, though there was a great deal of interest manifested.

GIPSY SMITH

The Noted Evangelist who is conducting a wonderful revival meeting at Seneca, will preach at the Walhalla High School Auditorium next Sunday, at 11.15 A. M. All the people of Walhalla and vicinity are urged to attend this meeting and hear the noted evangelist. Everybody will be cordially welcomed.

IN THE COUNTY.

Timmerman with a vote of 1805 so far is elected to the House without question. McDonald, it is practically certain, is elected with a good margin to spare, his vote being 1394, and it seems that about 1350 or 1360 will be necessary to a choice.

IN THE STATE.

The last news received last night by The Courier gave the following figures in the race for Governor, with 225 boxes missing: Blease 66,546, McLeod 82,747. This indicates that Mr. McLeod will win by about 16 to 20 thousand majority. There had been just practically 150,000 votes accounted for in the race for Governor.

In the race for State Superintendent of Education, Mr. Hope appears to have defeated Mr. Swearingen by about three to two. The vote in this race at the last account took into consideration about 126,000 votes, of which Hope had received 75,494 and Swearingen 50,061. This indicates beyond question that Hope is elected.

Just before closing the forms this morning The Courier received the following dispatch: "McLeod wins by about 15,000. Hope wins easily. 'All but 82 boxes in the State give McLeod 98,295, Blease 82,885.'"

Wager Township Singing Assn.

The Wager Township Singing Association will meet at new Liberty Baptist church on next Sunday, the 17th, in the afternoon. This church is known better as Ebenezer. Everybody come. J. F. Morton, President.

SERIOUS FIRE, LOWER OCONEE.

Residence of Louis M. Glymph Totally Destroyed Monday Night.

News was received in Walhalla yesterday of the total destruction by fire of the handsome residence of Louis M. Glymph, of the Fair Play section, with practically all of the household furnishings, almost nothing having been saved.

The fire originated on the roof of the building and was discovered at about 10 o'clock Monday night, after the family had retired. No reason for the fire can be assigned, as everything about the house was apparently in perfect shape when the family retired.

Mr. Glymph's loss is estimated to be about $7,000 or $8,000. We have not heard what amount, if any, insurance he carried.

Mr. Glymph and family have a host of friends in the county who will be greatly distressed over their misfortune.

Rocky Knoll Church Conference.

The Rocky Knoll church will meet on Saturday of this week at 8 p. m. to hold a conference. Matters of importance are to be considered at this meeting. All the members are urged to meet with us on the above mentioned date. L. M. Lyda, Pastor.

Vessel Sinks—Passengers Rescued.

London, Sept. 10.—A radio dispatch received by Lloyds from the British steamer Kinsfauna Castle reports that steamer rescued 340 persons from the German steamer Hammonia, which sank Saturday evening at 6.26 o'clock, 41.50 north, longitude 10.50 west. The Kinsfauna Castle is due to reach Southampton on Tuesday.

Oldsmobile

The Best Thing on Wheels.

We are to-day driving an Oldsmobile, Model 43-A, four cylinders, five passenger car, which has today gone eleven thousand one hundred and seventy-nine (11,179) miles, with a total expense for parts of 75 cents. The car is still running on its original tires. It is actually performing better to-day than the day it was first driven.

THIS IS NOT AN ISOLATED INSTANCE, but there are Oldsmobiles right here in Walhalla which have run thousands and thousands of miles with practically no expense at all. We do not believe there is any car in the market that can equal the OLDSMOBILE in price, good looks and endurance. Eighteen (18) to twenty (20) miles to one gallon of gas and from twenty-five hundred (2500) to three thousand (3000) miles to one gallon of lubricating oil is what the new Model Four-Cylinder Oldsmobile is doing from day to day. It is one of the very few cars in the country that is sold with a twelve months' guarantee.

GIVE US A CHANCE TO PROVE TO YOU THAT THE "OLDSMOBILE IS THE BEST THING ON WHEELS."

T.N.T. Ship Struck by Lightning.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 9.—Lightning struck the steamship Georgian with 350 tons of T.N.T. aboard while she lay at the municipal docks here to-day, stunning several members of the crew and throwing a scare into the city of Jacksonville, whose citizens generally believed that they

STRIKING SHOPMEN ARE GIVEN

Seven Years—Convicted of Assault and Kidnaping.

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 9.—E. G. Koontz, E. R. Henderson and Frank Briggs, striking Southern railway shopmen, to-day were each sentenced to serve seven years in the State prison at hard labor, wearing felons' stripes, by Judge Henry P. Lane in Superior Court, following conviction late yesterday upon the charge of assault and kidnaping.

The men were found guilty of abducting Sam Harris, aged 19, a shop worker, on Aug. 5th, taking him in an automobile to a remote spot and stripping him of his clothing and then beating him severely with harsh whips.

"As long as there is a constitution the people will not stand for any man or group of men decreeing when and where other men may work," said Judge Lane in pronouncing sentence. "This is an atrocious crime, rendered more atrocious because a helpless boy, out of work, who had to work for a living, was thus mistreated."

The judge said that kidnaping was a felony before there were such things as labor organizations, crafts and railway strikes, and the so-called war of labor and capital has nothing to do with mitigation of the offense.

Appeal bonds were set at $8,000 for each defendant. Notice of appeal to the Supreme Court was filed.

CLOVER AFFRAY TAKES FOURTH

Victim—Fred Taylor, Aged 22, Has Died Since Tragedy.

York, S. C., Sept. 9.—There will be a fresh flower-covered grave in Old Olney cemetery, in Gaston county, several miles from here, to the north, marking the resting place of the fourth victim of "Fighting Bill" Faries when he set out to slaughter the family of James Taylor in the Clover mill village last Wednesday. Fred Taylor, 22 years of age, died in a Gastonia, N. C. hospital this morning at 5 o'clock, after making a brave fight for his life. Fred was the last of the six members of the Taylor family alleged to have been shot by Faries last Wednesday. He is the last to die since it is practically certain now that the Misses Gertie Taylor, 20, and Dolly Taylor, 10, will recover from their wounds.

Miss Gertrude wanted to know to-day how her little brother, Newton, was coming along. She was not told that he had died on an operating table in Gastonia Wednesday. Neither does she know that her sister, Miss Lela, and her brother, Fred, are both dead. Claude Johnson was dead at the time she was taken to Gastonia to the hospital.

had narrowly escaped a second Halifax disaster. The bolt splintered the mast of the Georgian.
